Ware's Got Talent

Sunday 28th February 2010

The LoveWare:LiveWare team are holding a talent night!

Can you sing, dance, juggle, play an instrument, act? Whether you are 5 or 95 we would like to hear from you. Everyone will have to audition but if you feel you have what it takes, fill in this form and let us know you are interested. If you are under 18 you will need your parents' permission to be videoed so it is important that you get them to sign this form.

The auditions will be held on Saturday 27th February at Tower School.

There will be a panel of judges (can't promise Simon Cowell or Amanda Holden) and all auditions will be videoed so even if you don't make it to the final, you will be able to see yourself on video on the night.

Forms will need to be returned by February 24th if you want to audition.
