

Michaelmas Cottage, Braunton, North Devon

Stay for a week in a cosy cottage by Devon's famous surf beaches. This listed building is 350 years old, with a huge fireplace and log burner, central heating and fully fitted kitchen and bathroom.

There are 2 double bedrooms, one with king size bed, and the other very large room has 2 single beds and a 3rd mattress as a trundle. Large families can arrange to rent the annex next door as well.

Lovely private secluded garden, utility shed with freezer and washing machine, garden shed with bikes to hit the Tarka trail and beach shed with chairs, buckets and spades. Many children's toys, travel cot and high chair all available.

All linen and towels are provided, and there's a wide screen TV with inbuilt DVD player (plus many DVDs) and Wifi for Netflix etc.

Beaches are 5-10 mins drive and the biggest village in Britain (Braunton) is a stroll away, as is the large Tesco. Hundreds of activities to do in the area come rain or shine.

Please liaise with Siân on benandsian@msn.com, to discuss which week you'd like – there will be free weeks in the summer holidays too.
